dlopez341 bets of this game: 5/5Remeber back in the day, playing in the old versions of Pokemon Red and Blue? Well what's the new twist in these games Fire Red and Leaf Green. Back to their former glory Ash and Gary to fight it along with some new added content after the game is over! Must download for all Pokemon fans! FireRedGamerz Stakes this game: 5/5Pokemon Fire Red is an exciting game for both kids and young adults. This is a levelgame that I love and also has a good story behind. Even after you're done with the story, you can keep playing without getting bored. James evaluates this game: 5/5Pok'mon Fire Red adds more content and features to one of the first Pokemon games ever released. In this version of the classic role-playing game, you can collect all the monsters from different parts of Pokemon, including Ruby, Sapphire and the Colosseum. The game comes with a wireless adapter that allows you to connect with your Game Boy Advances friends to communicate, trade Pokemon and participate in battles. Other new features include textbook mode, resume system, mini-games, and more. ChaosMew161 evaluates this game: 4/5One of the best games ever, but there is one problem. Most FireRed ROMs don't save. Even when you install them flash 128k. Maybe they just aren't fully developed. This is basically a ROM problem, not a cartridge problem. With brand new features and new ways of capturing Pokemon, it's time for a whole new revolution in the new Pokemon Canto region. The otherworld consists of many cities where each city is usually the Pokemon Center (where you can heal Pokemon) Pokemart (where you can buy items), and many gyms to compete with Pokemon and see who is the strongest. Aside from completing your Pokedex, beating gym leaders in every gym is your main goal in the storyline to become the Pokemon League champion!
